FOR RELEASE

Expert weavers and textile designers from all over the city will be represented at the show of CLEVELAND TEXTILES - 1955 when it opens at the Cleveland Museum of Art on February 1st. Members of the Cleveland Textile Arts Club are the principal exhibitors. Twenty-five individual artists have already submitted examples of their work. Silk, cotton, linen, wool and denim and other materials make up the show.

Participants will be: Mr. Richard Abell, Mrs. H. E. Ammerman, Mrs. Sara Mattsson Anliot, Mrs. Mary Cunningham, Mrs. Mary Ann Emerine, Miss Wilhelmine Ewing, Mrs. Clement C. Giorgi, Mrs. Dorothy Harkins, Mrs. Minnie S. Monti, Mrs. R. R. Morrison, Miss Rose Simon, Mrs. Dorothy Turobinski, Mrs. William Van Loon, Mrs. Dorothy Waldorf, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Ward and Mrs. Eugene Watzulik.

Modern design will be emphasized throughout the show according to Dorothy G. Shepherd, Curator of Textiles at the Museum. Only yardage will be shown. No skirt, belt or stole will be seen. Some of the textiles will be for sale, and others may be ordered.

After the show leaves the Museum on March 2nd it will go to the Ohio Union at Ohio State University, Columbus.

Mrs. Victoria Ball, Associate Professor in Interior Design at Western Reserve University, will give a lecture on "Contemporary Textiles and Their Uses" on Sunday February 6th at 3:45 p.m. in the Museum in connection with the Textile Show.
